

1902 - 1984

Lyme Art Association

Lyme Art Association's 52nd Annual Members' Exhibit will feature oil and acrylic paintings, watercolors, pastels, drawings and sculpture, August 4th through September 9th.

The exhibit will include a special retrospective showing of Lymes 5 distinguished artists in the Goodman gallery.

Boris Kublanov an accomplished artist in still-life and famed for his portraits, worked extensively in pastels and oils. Arriving from Russia in 1923 he was soon recognized and accepted by the National Academy and Portraits, Inc. of New York. Kublanov is represented in public and private collections throughout the country.

Frederick Buchholz a former first President of the "League of Present Day Artists " in New York and former President of the Lyme Art Association excelled in a variety of medias. Studied at the Art Students League in New York, and exhibited throughout the country. He is represented in many private collections and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

ede-else buchholz: Art Students League for 5 years under the tutelage of Edward Chase, Louis Mora, Kenneth Hayes and K.H.Miller. A diversified artist who has exhibited throughout the United States was also an artist member of the Essex Art Association and the Lyme Art Association.

Alice Whitson whose watercolors included floral paintings as well as paintings of children and whimsical miniatures, won numerous awards in New York and New Jersey, was a member of the New Jersey Miniature Society, Clinton Art Society of Conn.; Essex Art Association and the Lyme Art Association.

